Faith, Family and Festivals Reformation Tour

Join us in June of 2017 as we embark on a Reformation adventure to mark 500 years of Lutheran heritage and historical impact. This 12 day, family-friendly trip will bring us the best of Martin Luther as well as introduce us to a number of significant historical and cultural sites in Germany. Traveling from Berlin to Munich we'll visit some of the must-see stops along the way, from Leipzig and JS Bach to the medieval city of Rothenburg to Dachau, a Nazi concentration camp, and the Neuschwanstein Castle. But wait there's more! We'll also visit Salzburg, Austria, where we'll tour the old town and the birthplace of Mozart all the while looking for Julie Andrews and the Von Trapp children as they attempt to outsmart and outrun the Gestapo. From heritage and history to music and a movie, this trip will make the perfect summer treat. Sign up today--the next one won't happen for another 500 years!
