Luther Anniversary Tour

We invite you to join expert German tour host Uli Buschmann on a 12 day journey in the footsteps of Martin Luther. Imagine yourself going to the epicenter of the Reformation and walking in the very places once frequented by Martin Luther and his contemporaries. It's going to be an amazing trip, and we would love to have you join us to share in this experience!

IF = In flight meals, B = Breakfast, D = Dinner

Day 1: Friday, April 21, 2017: Flights

We will depart the US today on our overnight flights to Frankfurt, Germany. Pre-tour nights are available for early arrivals. (IF)

Day 2: Saturday, April 22, 2017: Frankfurt, Worms

On arrival in Frankfurt, we will transfer to our hotel in the delightful village of Hofheim, close to Frankfurt. In the afternoon, we will travel to Worms where Luther was summoned to appear before the emperor. We will walk through the majestic Romanesque cathedral and then go to the site, now in a park, where he stood and gave his final testimony. We'll have a photo stop at the stunning Reformation Monument. On the way back to our hotel, we will stop at an historic "Strausswirtschaft" inn for a traditional meal in this wine growing area. (IF/D)

Day 3: Sunday, April 23, 2017: Frankfurt, Erfurt

This morning, we will attend the morning church service (in English) at Trinity Lutheran Church in Frankfurt. Founded in 1956 for Americans living in the area, many of them service personnel, it has become a meeting point for many nations over the years. We will then travel to Erfurt and check-in to our hotel where we will be based for three nights. We will dine in our hotel this evening. (B/D)

Day 4: Monday, April 24, 2017: Erfurt

Erfurt is closely linked to Martin Luther. In his early years, Luther attended the local university which ranks among the three oldest universities in Germany. After he had taken a vow to become a monk, he entered the Augustinian Monastery and lived there for 6 years (1505– 1511). We'll be guided around the monastery including seeing a replica cell. St Mary's Cathedral is one of the oldest churches in Germany, going right back to the Christianization by St. Boniface starting AD 719. Erfurt also boasts a unique medieval bridge which is the only one of its kind in northern, continental Europe. One reason Erfurt is on the map is a lowly plant that grows only in that area which is used to dye fabrics. The scientific name of the plant is Isatis Tinctoria. In German, it is called Waid or Glastum, and the common English name is Woad. We will visit Frau Sigritt Weiss, one of the few "blue printers" who still makes beautiful tablecloths, etc. (B/D)

Day 5: Tuesday, April 25, 2017: Eisenach, Erfurt

In 1521, while fleeing from the wrath of the Emperor and Pope, a fake kidnapping was staged by Luther's friend and protector, Frederick the Wise in order that he could take refuge in Wartburg Castle. We will tour the castle and stand in the room where Luther lived and worked for almost a year. Among other things, he translated, for the first time, the New Testament into the German language. Back down in the city, we'll visit St. George's church where Martin was a choir boy while he went to school in Eisenach and later on his way to Worms, where he did what he did best; preach. Eisenach was also home to Johann Sebastian Bach. He was baptized in St. George's, and several members of the Bach family were organists here. We will have free time in the afternoon to visit the Bach House before we return to Erfurt. (B/D)

Day 6: Wednesday, April 26, 2017: Eisleben, Wittenberg

This morning, we will continue to the little city of Eisleben which is sometimes referred to as Luther's "Bethlehem and the Jerusalem". Our first port of call will be the house where little Martin was born on November 10, 1483. The next day after his birth, Luther was baptized in the nearby church of St. Petri-Pauli, just a few steps up the street from the house. This old, Gothic church has currently been beautifully restored in view of the big Luther celebrations in 2017 to celebrate baptism as a Christian institution. Throughout his life, Martin often returned to Eisleben, finally once again as an old man to settle a dispute within the ruling family of the area. After three weeks, he finally succeeded. One day later, on February 18, 1546, he died. We'll take a look around the church where he gave his last 4 sermons and where his body was laid out before returning home to Wittenberg. Mid afternoon, we continue our journey to the city of Wittenberg, thus, more or less precisely, following the reformer's last journey on this earth. Our home for the next 2 nights will be in Wittenberg. Dinner is included tonight at our hotel. (B/D)

Day 7: Thursday, April 27, 2017: Wittenberg

Today, we will tour the Luther House Museum where Martin Luther and his family lived. This Reformation museum's collection includes Luther's pulpit and first editions of his books. Nearby is St. Mary's Church, a twin-towered Gothic church where Luther preached the Reformation, got married (1525), and baptized his six children. We will go to the spot where Luther reputedly burned the Papal Bull by which Rome condemned him as a heretic. In the Castle Church, we will see Luther's tomb and gather outside the doors where Luther posted his 95 Theses against the sale of indulgences—and launched the Reformation in 1517. We will have a very special Luther-themed meal this evening. (B/D)

Day 8: Friday, April 28, 2017: Torgau, Leipzig

This morning, we will drive to Torgau, the political center of the Reformation. During the 15th and 16th centuries, the town was the residence of the prince-electors of Saxony. We will begin with a tour of St. Mary's Church, where Luther's wife, Katharina von Bora, is buried. The magnificent renaissance Hartenfels Castle includes the first purpose-built Protestant church, which

Luther consecrated in 1544. In the afternoon, we will continue on to Leipzig. Luther was here more than once, but Leipzig is really the town of Johann Sebastian Bach. Bach served as cantor in St. Thomas Church for 27 years. We will hear Bach's music at the motet concert in the afternoon. (B/D)

Day 9: Saturday, April 29, 2017: Leipzig

We will have a leisure day today, but we will begin with an introduction to Leipzig. In the market square, we will see the beautiful old city hall. The museum collection includes Katharina von Bora's wedding ring. In St. Nicholas Church, we will hear the story of the prayer meetings. In 1989, thousands of East Germans gathered by candlelight in this church to form human rights and pro-democracy demonstrations that led to the destruction of the infamous Berlin Wall and the dissolution of East Germany. The rest of the day is free to explore museums, shop, or relax. In the early evening, we will transfer to our hotel in Zeitz, where we will be based for two nights. We will dine in our hotel. (B/D)

Day 10: Sunday, April 30, 2017: Meet the Luthers!

Have you ever wondered if there are any traces left of Martin Luther's family? Although it's been 500 years since the start of the Reformation, family members are still in the area. We will spend the day in the town of Zeitz and meet Henriette Rossner, who is a 13th generation descendent of Martin Luther. We will visit the headquarters and library of the Luther Association housed in a magnificent castle. We will also have a private organ concert in the cathedral, meet the mayor in the town hall, and have a very special local meal. (B/D)

Day 11: Monday, May 1, 2017: Alsfeld, Frankfurt

On our journey back to Frankfurt, we will have a leisurely lunchtime break in the fairytale city of Alsfeld. This charming medieval town is still characterized by a wealth of half-timbered buildings. We will continue our journey to Frankfurt and check-in to our hotel. We will have a farewell meal in a local restaurant this evening. (B/D)

Day 12: Tuesday, May 2, 2017: Return

We will transfer to the Frankfurt Airport for our return flights, or continue our travels in Europe. (B)
