

Reformation Tours, LLC presents the

Methodist and Presbyterian Heritage Tour

September 6-17, 2018

Methodist and Presbyterian Heritage Tour

Pastor Randy and Jane Hall live in Lexington, NC, where he has served as the pastor of Fairmont Presbyterian Church for 24 years. Because Jane grew up in Methodism, they are looking forward to visiting those places significant to both the Methodist and Presbyterian heritages. They are excited about welcoming you to join them in this trip which will be educational, spiritual, and just plain fun.

Pastor Jill Alventosa-Brown is a second career United Methodist Pastor who has served for 19 years in 4 churches in Lexington and the greater Greensboro area. She's excited to be co-hosting a tour that will follow the lives of John and Charles Wesley and John Knox and discover more about the roots of the Methodist and Presbyterian churches. She was born and raised in the Methodist Church and tradition and loves its heritage. She looks forward to sharing it with you.

Day 1: Thursday, September 6, 2018: Departure

We will set off today from the USA to London (IF)

Day 2: Friday, September 7, 2018: Arrival

On arrival in London, we will meet our tour director who will escort us to our waiting air-conditioned bus. We will begin our tour with a leisurely visit to Hampton Court Palace. In 1604, James I commissioned the King James Version of the Bible during the Hampton Court Conference and we will discuss this in the room where it happened. In the Chapel Royal, we will hear how Henry VIII's decision to allow production of the Bible was influenced by his last wife, Catherine Parr. After the tour we will have time to stroll through the beautiful gardens and try and find our way to the center of the maze. Our bus will take us on a panoramic sightseeing tour before we arrive at our centrally-located London hotel. The afternoon is free to explore at our leisure before our welcome dinner at the hotel (IF/D)

Day 3: Saturday, September 8, 2018: London

Our Blue Badge Guide will give us a guided tour of Westminster Abbey this morning. Westminster Abbey has played an integral part in the history of London and the UK. Kings and Queens have been crowned here since 1066 (William the Conqueror) and it's been the setting for many special occasions such as the wedding of the Duke and Duchess of Cambridge. Our guide will also tell us about the Houses of Parliament and Big Ben. We will travel up River Thames, giving us excellent views of the Tower and Tower Bridge. The Tower has a fascinating and also rather grisly history and we will hear about the various inhabitants through the centuries. The evening is free to attend a West End Show or dine in the restaurant of our choice. (B)

Day 4: Sunday, September 9, 2018: London

John Wesley (1703-1791) has been called the most influential Protestant leader of the English-speaking world since the Reformation and his brother Charles wrote hundreds of amazing hymns. We will tour the legendary Bunhill Field's Cemetery, where we can see the burial place of nonconformist Protestants. We will then attend the 11:00 AM service at the John Wesley's Chapel, Wesley's home and the Museum of Methodism, followed by a tour of his home. We will dine at a local restaurant, followed by a ride on the London Eye. (B/D)

Day 5: Monday, September 10, 2018: Oxford

We will depart London this morning and visit C.S. Lewis' home, the Kilns, subject to availability. Oxford is one of England's famous University cities with a rich Reformation history. The early English reformer, John Wycliffe, was a professor at the university. Other well-known students included Bible translator William Tyndale and the great revivalist preacher George Whitefield. We will have a Wesley-themed walking tour including their rooms in Lincoln College. We will attend Evensong in Christ Church, then dine in our hotel. (B/D)

Day 6: Tuesday, September 11, 2018: Stonehenge, Bristol, Oxford

Today's day trip begins at the World Heritage site of Stonehenge, the pre-historic stone circle. We will continue on to Bristol and visit the New Room, the oldest Methodist

Pastors Randy Hall and Jill Alventosa-Brown

Chapel in the World. George Whitefield invited John Wesley to come to Bristol in 1729 and he began his ministry with open-air preaching. He purchased the land to build the New Room in 1742. We will also visit the home where John's younger brother lived with his family. Charles Wesley was a prolific hymn writer and also preached. We will return to our hotel in Oxford for our evening meal (B/D)

Day 7: Wednesday, September 12, 2018: Oxford, Stratford-upon-Avon

We will drive through the Cotswolds this morning, stopping for lunch in a quaint village. We will check-in to our hotel in Stratford-upon-Avon. In the afternoon we will tour Shakespeare's Birthplace, Nash's House and New Place, Anne Hathaway's Cottage, and Mary Arden's farm. We will also have a tour of the theater. (B/L)

Day 8: Thursday, September 13, 2018: Epworth, York

After a leisurely breakfast, we will drive to Epworth and have lunch in the Red Lion pub, where Wesley often stayed. In the afternoon we will tour their father's church, St. Andrews, and tour the Old Rectory where John and Charles Wesley grew up with their many siblings. We will see where their mother Susanna Wesley taught her children. We will also see the Market Cross where Wesley preached. We will continue on to York and dine in our hotel. (B/D)

Day 9: Friday, September 14, 2018: York, Durham

Our guided walking tour of York will include a walk atop the ancient city walls and a tour of York Minster Cathedral, the biggest medieval church in England. Christianity has an early heritage in York. By 306, when Constantine the Great was proclaimed Emperor in York, it is believed there was a small Christian community. In 312 he issued a general edict of toleration for the Christian Church and York became a center of Christianity. In the afternoon we will travel to Durham, voted "Best city in the UK" by Condé Nast's Traveller magazine readers. Durham Cathedral is a UNESCO World Heritage site and regarded as the finest Norman building in Europe. We will attend Evensong at the cathedral at 3:30pm, then tour the cathedral, followed by a private tour and dinner in the medieval Prior's Hall, originally the Prior's Dining Room when the Cathedral was a Benedictine Monastery. We will spend the night in Durham. (B/L/D)

Day 10: Saturday, September 15, 2018: Lindisfarne, Edinburgh

Lindisfarne, known today as Holy Island, is a tidal island off the Northumbrian coast. St. Aidan was sent here as a missionary from Iona and established a monastery in around 630 AD. Vikings destroyed the original monastery and monks fled from the island. The present Lindisfarne Priory is a dramatic ruin, modeled after Durham Cathedral. This is where the famous Lindisfarne Gospels were produced. Even secular historians refer to Lindisfarne as "the most holy place in England." After time to view the 16th century castle, we will continue our journey to Edinburgh and dine at our hotel. (B/D)

Day 11: Sunday, September 16, 2018: Edinburgh

St Giles' Cathedral is often called the Mother Church of World Presbyterianism. We will attend the 10:00 AM morning service. John Knox first preached here in 1559. It was reported that "he was so active and vigorous it looked as if he was about to break." After some free time for lunch, we will see John Knox House (closed on Sundays), Greyfriar's Church, Magdalene Chapel and the Royal Mile. Our tour of Edinburgh Castle will include tiny St. Margaret's Chapel, which dates back to the 1100s. We will dine at a traditional Scottish restaurant this evening. (B/D)

Day 12: Monday, September 17, 2018: Return

We will return to the US after a wonderful time learning about the Christian heritage of the United Kingdom (B)
