Redeemer Reformation Tour of Scotland and England

Members and friends of Redeemer Presbyterian Tour are invited to join Dr. Tony and Shari Felich on an 11 day tour of Britain from Edinburgh to London.

Dr. Tony Felich has been the senior pastor of Redeemer Presbyterian Church in Overland Park, KS for almost 20 years. Tony's area of special interest is Reformation Church History, especially related to the Westminster Assembly of the middle seventeenth century. Tony is an adjunct professor of Church History at Sangre De Cristo Seminary and holds degrees from Moody Bible Institute (B.A.), Covenant Theological Seminary (M.Div), and Whitefield Theological Seminary (D.Arts). He is currently finishing degrees (D.Min and Th.M) at Midwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. Tony is married to Shari, who will be helping to host this trip. Tony and Shari have four children, two in college and two still at home. Dr. Felich enjoys teaching Church History in a way that encourages the faith of modern Christians.

Key: IF = In Flight Meals, B = Breakfast, L = Lunch, D = Dinner

Day 1: Wednesday, May 27, 2020: Flight to Edinburgh

We will set off from Kansas City on our overnight flights to Edinburgh, Scotland. (IF)

Day 2: Thursday, May 28, 2020: Flight to Edinburgh

On arrival in Edinburgh, we will meet our tour director, and board our air-conditioned bus. We will begin with an orientation tour of Edinburgh. At the top of the Royal Mile lies the magnificent Edinburgh Castle. Our tour of this imposing castle will include tiny St. Margaret's Chapel, Edinburgh's oldest building, which dates back to the 1100s. After checking in to our centrally located hotel, the afternoon will be at leisure. We will dine in our hotel this evening. (IF/D)

Day 3: Friday, May 29, 2020: Edinburgh

This morning we will have a walking tour of Edinburgh, including St. Giles Cathedral, Greyfriar's Kirk, the John Knox House, and a tour of Holyrood Palace, where John Knox discussed Christianity with Mary Queen of Scots. The rest of the day will be at leisure to enjoy Edinburgh. (B)

Day 4: Saturday, May 30, 2020: St. Andrews, Edinburgh

Today we will visit St. Andrews, which has been a spiritual center in Scotland for centuries. During the Reformation, St. Andrews University was third in significance after Oxford and Cambridge. In the now ruined castle, we will see the Bottle Dungeon where George Wishart was imprisoned before being burned at the stake. We will pause at his martyrdom site and also remember fellow martyr Patrick Hamilton. St. Andrews Cathedral was once the largest church in Scotland but fell into ruin after John Knox's sermon inspired by Wishart's martyrdom. We will have a group meal in a restaurant and enjoy traditional Scottish food. (B/D)

Day 5: Sunday, May 31, 2020: Edinburgh, Haddington, York

This morning we will have the opportunity to worship at St. Giles Cathedral or a local church, followed by a group lunch. In the afternoon, we will cross the border into England and continue on to York. The evening will be at leisure, and the tour director will lead an optional evening walk. (B/L)

Day 6: Monday, June 1, 2020: York

Our local guide will take us on a walking tour of York, including the Medieval "Shambles," and a walk on the ancient city walls. We will tour the Minster, which is the biggest medieval church in England and has an impressive collection of medieval stained glass, including a sixteenth century rose window. The term “Minster” usually refers to a church in a monastery, but this cathedral was never part of a monastic institution, so it doesn’t have cloisters. The rest of the day will be at leisure and we recommend Afternoon Tea at Betty’s. (B)

Day 7: Tuesday, June 2, 2020: Cambridge

We will continue our journey south and spend the afternoon in Cambridge, a center of Protestant scholarship for leaders including Archbishop Thomas Cranmer, and Bishops Nicholas Ridley and Hugh Latimer. In St. John’s College, we will see an original copy of the beautifully illustrated Great Bible published in 1539 by Cranmer. We will also see King’s College Chapel. During the Reformation, the White Horse Inn was a favored meeting place and we will see the plaque showing its location. This evening we will dine in a local restaurant. (B/D)

Day 8: Wednesday, June 3, 2020: Bedford, London

In Bedford, we will learn more about John Bunyan, the author of Pilgrim’s Progress. He was arrested and imprisoned for 12 years, for preaching without a license from the Church of England. We will see the plaque where the county gaol stood in the 17th century and tour the Bunyan Meeting Church and Museum. We will then continue on to London, where we will check into the final hotel of the trip. We will have an early dinner this evening, then attend a West End Play. (B/D)

Day 9: Thursday, June 4, 2020: London

We will have a full day with an expert Christian guide, beginning with a tour of Biblical artifacts in the British Museum.

After free time for lunch, we will do a walking tour focused on many significant Christians who ministered in the city, including William Wilberforce, John Newton, John Wesley, etc. The evening will be at leisure. (B)

Day 10: Friday, June 5, 2020: London

The morning will be free to explore independently, with an optional tour of the Tower of London and the Metropolitan Tabernacle. In the afternoon, we will have a tour of Westminster Abbey, where most British kings and queens since 1066 have been crowned. It’s the final resting place for many monarchs, heroes, authors, and poets. This is also where 151 theologians met in the 1640s to draw up the Westminster Confession of Faith, which is the standard of doctrine for the Church of Scotland and many Presbyterian churches throughout the world. We will then have a round-trip cruise on the Thames to see the sites of London from the water, followed by a ride on the London Eye. Our Farewell meal will be in a restaurant close to our hotel. (B/D)

Day 11: Saturday, June 6, 2020: Depart

We will transfer to the airport for our return to the USA. Additional days in London or other cities are available on request. (B/IF)
