

Reformation Tours' Guide to Choosing a Flight

Getting to Europe always involves a long flight, but we want to do everything we can to help you choose the best option for you. Flight details can be found under the "Flights" tab of your tour.

Book Group Flights with Reformation Tours

We can offer a group flight if we have at least 10 travelers on the same itinerary. We will e-mail you if this is available for your tour, and you can also find the details under the "Flights" tab of your tour. Please let us know as soon as possible if you'd like to be on the group flights, so we can adjust the number of seats we're holding.

Book Directly with Airline

Flights using air miles need to be arranged directly with your airline. We also suggest booking Business Class and First Class directly, although we can give you a quote.

Book Your Own

Some of you are very used to buying flights online and you are more than welcome to purchase your own tickets. We recommend Skyscanner, Momondo, and Kiwi for the best rates. Please make sure you know the suggested arrival date and time. Once you've booked, please forward us your flight details.

Tip: Search for flights in incognito or private browsing mode, so that the flight prices don't increase based on cookies in your browser. In Google Chrome or Safari, click Ctrl + Shift + N in Mozilla Firefox or Internet Explorer, click Ctrl + Shift + P.

When you are searching, there are three options:

- Round Trip: For flights arriving and returning from the same airport, e.g. LAX to London, London to LAX.
- One Way: For flights just in one direction. If you are doing a pre-tour, you might use a short flight to get to the tour's starting point, e.g. Dublin to Edinburgh.
- Multi-Destination or Open Jaw: This is the most common flight option on our tours. You will fly into one city and depart from another, e.g. Boston to Berlin, Munich to Boston. This is much cheaper than 2 one-way tickets.

Book Individual Flights with Reformation Tours

If you would rather have help to book your flights, we are happy to assist you. We have a booking form to fill out, so that we know exactly what you'd like us to book for you. You can also send us flight options you find online and we can check to see if we can get a cheaper option.

Layover Times

If you are not able to get direct flights, then we recommend at least 1.5 hours between flights. Please allow extra time if you have to clear customs and immigration, if you are a slow walker, if you'd like to eat between flights, and if weather might be an issue. It's always a good idea to carry a change of clothes and snacks in case of an unexpected delay.
