MPPC Walking the Path to Geneva

You are invited to join Rev. Bart Edwards from MPPC as we travel to the countries where the Reformation began.

We'll journey back to the spiritual roots of the reformed church by visiting four countries. We will see sites where the Reformation took hold, obtain a broader understanding of the history of the church, and gain new appreciation of the great cloud of witnesses who have gone before us. Starting in Prague and ending in Geneva, the tour will visit key Reformation sites in the Czech Republic, Germany, France, and Switzerland.

We will enjoy guided tours at prominent Reformation sites, a river cruise in Prague, worship with an English-speaking ministry in Wittenberg, a reception at the Bach House in Eisenach, castle and cathedral tours, and much more. In addition to the guided tours, our schedule will allow for personal time to explore these sites and soak up the culture. Beyond the sights and sounds of the architecture, art and music, the trip will also be filled with friends, fellowship, and lots of good food and fun. Come join us on this adventure!
